My signature below indicates that I understand that the pool membership purchase is non-refundable, and that I have read and agreed to comply with the rules and regulations posted in the swimming pool area, and the following liability waiver:

All persons using the pool do so at their own risk. The Sun Valley HOA and its board members assume no responsibility for any accident or injury in connection with the user of the pool or for any loss and/or damage to personal property.

In partial consideration for the privileges of any type of use of the Sun Valley facilities, all members and guests release, waive, discharge and covenant not to sue Sun Valley, the Sun Valley Board or committee members, and other members or representatives of that organization, all of which are hereinafter referred to as "releasees", from demands, losses or damages on account of injury, including death or damage of property, or any other cause or alleged to be caused in whole or in part by the negligence of the releasees, and hereby otherwise waive and release any and all claims against arising out those activities or any other use of such property, including, but not limited to claims alleging negligence, strict liability, breach of contract.
